

Vivienne Bath – Short biography

Vivienne Bath, B.A. (Asian Studies)(hons)(First Class)(ANU); LL.B.(hons)(First class) (ANU); LL.M (Harvard); Senior Lecturer in Law, Faculty of Law, University of Sydney, and Director of the Centre for Asian and Pacific Law at the University of Sydney. She teaches International Business Law, Doing Business in China and Chinese Laws and Legal Systems.

Prior to joining the Faculty of Law, Vivienne Bath was a partner of international firm Coudert Brothers, working in the Hong Kong and Sydney offices, and specialising in commercial law, with a focus on foreign investment and commercial transactions in the People's Republic of China. She previously practised as a commercial lawyer in New York and Sydney, and worked in the Federal Office of Parliamentary Counsel as a parliamentary draftsman. She is admitted to practice in the Australian Capital Territory, New South Wales, New York, England and Hong Kong.

Vivienne Bath has published widely in the area of Chinese law and is a frequent participant in conferences and seminars focussing on developments in the Chinese legal regime and aspects of international law and business.