

Short Course: Law of the Sea Course Timetable 13-17 June 2022

TIME	TOPIC	SPEAKERS
13 June 2022 10:00 - 12:00 (UK)	The UN Law of the Sea Convention in Perspective: Historical Aspects, Key Concepts & Principles The session examines the process through which the international law of the sea was created, the key law of the sea concepts and principles and how the present law of the sea, largely codified in the UN Convention on the Law of the Sea (UNCLOS), is designed to perform certain functions.	Dr Constantinos Yiallourides, Arthur Watts Research Fellow in Law of the Sea, BIICL; Lecturer in International Law, Macquarie University Sydney.
14 June 2022 10:00 - 12:00 (UK)	Zones of Maritime Jurisdiction & Maritime Boundary Delimitation This session provides an overview of States' rights and obligations on the territorial sea, the continental shelf and the EEZ, including aspects relevant to fisheries, oil and gas resources and offshore renewable energy. It also deals with issues of international boundary making such as maritime delimitation methodology and effect of islands in the delimitation process.	Professor Richard Barnes, Professor of International Law, Lincoln University.
15 June 2022 10:00 - 12:00 (UK)	Governance of Resources in Areas Beyond National Jurisdiction: Fisheries, Seabed Minerals & Marine Genetic Resources This session provides an examination of the legal framework governing the exploration, conservation, and sustainable use of resources in areas beyond national jurisdiction and challenges for modern ocean governance.	Professor Maria Gavouneli, Professor of International Law, National & Kapodistrian University of Athens; Senior Policy Advisor, Hellenic Foundation for European & Foreign Policy.

16 June 2022 10:00 - 12:00 (UK)	Maritime Migration: Migrant Smuggling, Search & Rescue and Human Rights at Sea This session introduces participants to the various law of the sea issues arising in the context of maritime migration, the connections between the law of the sea and other areas of international law including the law of transnational crime and human rights law. Based on examples from around the world, the session explores the key legal issues that have arisen in the field and how solutions are found at the intersection of competing legal interests and approaches.	Dr Jean-Pierre Gauci Arthur Watts Senior Research Fellow in Public International Law; Director of Teaching and Training, BIICL. Dr Noemi Magugliani Research Fellow in Anti-Trafficking Law and Policy, BIICL; Lecturer, NUI Galway, Legal Advisor to the United Nations Special Rapporteur on Trafficking in Persons, Especially Women & Children.
17 June 2022 13:00-15:00 (UK)	Dispute Settlement in the Law of the Sea and the Role of ITLOS The session provides an insightful overview of the dispute settlement mechanisms in the law of the sea domain and the contribution of the International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea (ITLOS) in the settlement of international disputes, including prompt release of vessels, fisheries disputes, environmental disputes, and maritime boundary delimitation.	H.E Judge Tomas Heidar, Vice President of the International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea.

* Speakers and timings are subject to change