Gift Aid: making the most of your donation

At present, every £10 donated by UK Taxpayers is worth £12.50 to the British Institute of International and Comparative Law. The difference is reclaimed from HM Revenue & Customs (HMRC) at no cost to you. Please sign this declaration for both single and regular gifts.

I (your name)
would like the British Institute of International and Comparative Law to treat any donations I make in the future, or have made in the past 4 years, as Gift Aid donations, until I notify you otherwise.
Signature	Date

By signing above you agree to the following: 'I confirm that I am a UK taxpayer and understand that if I pay less Income Tax and/or Capital Gains Tax than the amount of Gift Aid claimed on all my donations in the current or any tax year, it is my responsibility to pay any difference'. Please notify us if you wish to cancel this declaration, change your name or address, or no longer pay sufficient tax on your income and/or capital gains. If you pay Income Tax at the higher rate and want to receive the additional tax relief due to you, you must include all your Gift Aid donations on your Self-Assessment tax return or ask HMRC to adjust your tax code.
